22/17 Virement to the Housing Revenue Account for new build and acquisitions

The Cabinet Member for Housing and Urban Renewal considered a report of the Strategic Director for Communities and Place to approve the virement of £250,000 from the 2 budgets reporting underspends into the HRA for new build and acquisitions.

The Housing Development Officer informed the Cabinet Member that there has been underspend in two budgets within the Housing Revenue Account Capital Programme. It was therefore proposed to transfer this to the acquisitions programme so that two further acquisitions in the form of affordable dwellings can be purchased.

The Cabinet Member resolved to approve the virement of £250,000 from the 2 budgets reporting underspends into the HRA for new build and acquisitions.
